

Are You an Awesome EI Occupational Therapist in the Triangle?

Locus Family Centered Therapies, founded by an OTD with 35 years of experience across agency, clinic, and private practice, is hiring in the local area. We offer OTs the opportunity to pursue their passion for helping children while growing in their professional skills. One-on-one mentoring by our founder, combined with discretionary funds for wellness/licensure/CEU credits demonstrates our commitment to helping you become the best OT possible.

We believe in family-centered therapy, whereby the natural environment is used to help the family unit establish healthy routines without the introduction of a toy bag or prop that cannot be reproduced by the parent when we're not around. Acknowledging the issues these families face and helping them to make sense of the developmental delays their child may be experiencing is our compassionate service that we perform daily because we love it!

Whether you are new to the profession and ready to step up your game, or have been in a school or clinic environment and are looking for something new, we would love to talk to you! Some of the particulars are listed below, but what we'd really like is for you to send us your resume and a cover letter stating why you are interested in this opportunity. We will follow up immediately to set an appointment to discuss whether this could be a mutual match.

- Our therapists choose the size of their caseload (usually between 10 and 25 cases)
- We have strong enough referral sources that you can choose what zip codes to serve
- Your schedule is in your own hands; work with the families to create it!
- Self-starters and independent thinkers are welcome
- Compensation ranges from $50-65/visit; we will discuss the scale in person
- We file all agency and insurance paperwork for you
- We welcome those currently enrolled in a Master's program
- We're not a huge practice; so you receive personalized attention

If this sounds like an opportunity you'd like to pursue, please email a resume and cover letter to: manager@locusfct.com. Thank you very much!
